Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 20 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Frost overnight. Dry with long sunny spells on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloudy with patchy rain in the southeast in the evening, otherwise mainly dry with long clear spells and widespread frost developing. Windy with a few showers across the Northern Isles, some heavy and perhaps wintry at times.

Wednesday:
Frosty start, then dry and bright, with long sunny spells and light winds. Cloudier around the far north with a few showers. Feeling quite pleasant in the sunshine.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Mainly dry and bright with sunny spells, but rather cool with night frosts. Cloudier with a few showers at times over the Northern Isles.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.